1. On 20 November 1950, about 600 officers, including 3 newly assigned generals, were stationed at the Werder (N 53/4 53) airfield. One third of the officers lived in Werder with their families. The rest had their meals in the officers' mess at the field. The flying personnel received double rations. Captain Ivanov (fnu) was the mess officer and Senior Lieutenant Vasilov (fnu) was in charge of the kitchen. *
